

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 26, 1996

SUBJECT: SB 3142 - HB 3095

This bill, if enacted, will provide that a defendant in a misdemeanor case will serve 100% of the sentence if no percentage is expressed in the judgment. It also provides that if a defendant's probation is revoked, the defendant will serve that portion of the sentence not already served in confinement, regardless of the release percentage, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in local government expenditures to the extent that judges choose to impose the provisions of this bill. Such increase cannot be determined but is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director